

IN MEMORIAM.

'With folded hands and arms at rest,

"The Southern Cross above his breast"

was James Robinson Sterling laid to sleep in Concord Presbyterian Cemetery April 28, beneath a covering of beautiful spring flowers, in the presence of a large number of relatives, friends and former pupils. For some time he had been in declining health, but seemed as well as usual on the morning of the 27th. When called to dinner he was not in his accustomed chair on the porch, neither in his room, when search was begun, he was found lying dead at the foot of the steps where he had been seen sitting a short while before.

Though the Death Angel came suddenly and unexpectedly we feel sure that he was prepared to go. He had expressed the wish to die suddenly and be spared prolonged suffering, and God granted his desire.

Had he lived until May 7th, he would have been 79 years of age. Over forty of these years had been spent in teaching the youth of the land. Many who read these lines all over the State will say, "I went to school to him". "I never began to learn until he taught me how." With a splendid knowledge of Greek, Latin and mathematics he was a teacher of the old type. Educated at the South Carolina College, he determined to be a doctor, but his health failed and he had to come home the first year at Charleston. The war between the states soon began and he volunteered for service in the Little River Guards April 11th, 1861, under Captain Michael Brice, later transferred to the cavalry, 4th Regiment, Company "B", under Capt. A. Barber. Here he served faithfully until the surrender, then he returned to help build up the broken fortunes of home and State.

Being of a modest, retiring nature, he never married. Since quitting the teaching profession he made his home with his niece, Mrs. W. M. Harvey, near Woodward, whom he and his mother reared and who was to him a loving and beloved daughter.

ATTENDANCE CONTEST.

The forty-six counties in South Carolina are in an "Attendance Contest" for the approaching State Sunday School Convention at Winthrop College, Rock Hill, June 8-9-10, and the President of each County Sunday School Association has been appointed as the Director of the Attendance Contest campaign in that county, assisted by the County Secretary and the District presidents, of whom there are 219 in the State.

The contest is on a proportionate basis, it is said, the number of registered delegates from each county being multiplied by the railroad distance of the county seat from the Convention, so as to make it fair for all counties, both those near-by and those at a distance. There are no restrictions as to attendance. The convention, it is said, is a popular meeting and not a strictly delegated body. Consequently, everyone who wishes to do so is invited to attend. All who attend and register are accepted as delegates; only those who do register count in attendance contest. A beautiful banner will be publicly presented to the county having the largest registered attendance in proportion to the distance traveled.

The Committee appointed to have charge of working up the attendance from Fairfield County is as follows: Rev. G. C. Gibson, Winnsboro; Miss Nan Neil, Winnsboro; J. B. Frazer, Blair; B. H. Yarborough, Jenkinsville; J. E. Bruce, Winnsboro; A. T. Moore, Ridgeway.

OPEN LETTER

To the Ministers of the Gospel of All Denominations in Fairfield County.

Dear Brethren:

Recognizing the pastor's rightful place of leadership and responsibility for the religious education and evangelization of our childhood and youth, the South Carolina Sunday School Association especially invites you to attend and take part in the approaching State Sunday School Association Convention, Winthrop College, Rock Hill, June 8-9-10.

The success of the Sunday School work in the church, in the community and in our State, depends upon our pastors. We have therefore tried to prepare such a program for this convention as will be of interest to the pastors and of help to the superintendents and teachers, as they cooperate with their pastors in the work of the Sunday School.

We trust you will do three things:

(1) Come to the Convention yourself.

(2) See that it is announced at your church and Sunday School services for at least two or three Sundays.

(3) Pray for God's guidance and blessing upon the Convention sessions—that the superintendents and teachers attending may be given a new vision of their task, practical help in its accomplishment, and a deeper consecration to the service of our Lord and Master.

Fraternalty Yours,

Robert S. Truesdale, Pastor Main Street Methodist Church, Columbia.

Wm. L. Ball, Pastor First Baptist Church, Spartanburg.

A. D. P. Gilmour, Pastor First Presbyterian Church, Spartanburg.

W. H. K. Pendleton, Rector Episcopal Church, Spartanburg.

CITIZENSHIP COURSE FOR WOMEN DURING SUMMER SCHOOL.

During the Short Course for Women, July 4-16, inclusive, the subject of citizenship will be emphasized. This subject is full of interest to everyone, and again we would say the offerings of the Short Course are open, not only to those who come especially for the course, but to all attending the summer school.

This session the course in citizenship will emphasize several phases of government. The women of the country are now giving particular attention to legislation, both national and state. It is therefore well that they discuss in detail in this course the subject of Congress and the State Legislature, studying the organization, their methods and procedure, and the way in which we proceed in order to get our legislation passed. This would also include a discussion of the provisions of those bills which women's organizations throughout the country have endorsed, such as the Sheppard-Towner and the Smith-Towner Bills.

666 has more imitations than any other Fever Tonic on the market, but no one wants imitations.

SHORT COURSE FOR WOMEN AT WINTHROP.

From July 4 to 16 the Short Course for Women will be offered at Winthrop College. This course, offered at the request of the club women of the state, is designed to meet the needs of the woman in the home who is hungering for intellectual stimulation and recreation.

Any course offered during the Summer School is open to those who attend this short course, but a special program is arranged in order that some unit in each subject may be covered in the two weeks' session. This program will include studies in English history, psychology, home nursing, household arts, household science, social science, parliamentary law and citizenship. All are interested in reducing adult illiteracy and to aid this work Miss Eva Hite former President of the State School Improvement Association, will give a course in methods of teaching adult illiterates.

During this course there will be several important conferences held at the college. The nurses and hospital workers of the state will hold one, lasting, probably the entire two weeks. Mrs. F. S. Munsell Chairman of the South Carolina League of Women Voters, has called a meeting of the head of the various state organizations to meet at the college on July 6 for a conference.

This Short Course gives an opportunity for the woman in the home to renew her youth to refresh her memory on many points, and to receive inspiration to carry back to her home and her community.

The cost of this delightful two weeks is simply the cost of board, $9.00 per week or $2.00 per day for a shorter length of time. Those wishing to reserve rooms or secure further information may write Miss Leila A. Russell, Winthrop College Rock Hill, S. C.

Dickey, deceased, has this day made application unto me for a final discharge as such administrator; and that the 12th day of June, 1921, at 10 o'clock A. BAPTISTS COLLECT $25,000,000 CASH

REDEMPTION OF PLEDGES ENCOURAGING—SOUTHWIDE PROGRAM IS LAUNCHED.

COMPLETE GREATEST YEAR

Reports to Southern Baptist Convention at Chattanooga Show Marked Progress Along Every Line of Organized Work.

DR. J. H. RUSHBROOKE
Baptist Commissioner for Europe.

Collections in cash totaling $25,103,424.64 have been made for general causes fostered by the Baptist 75 Million Campaign since the campaign was launched in 1919, according to a report to the Southern Baptist Convention, which has just adjourned its Chattanooga session, by Dr. L. R. Scarborough, general director of the campaign, and chairman of the Conservation Commission. The fact that $12,924,943.60 of this amount was collected during the past year, under the most depressing conditions known in years, is very encouraging to the denominational leaders, they say.

Will Seek the Unsaved.

Feeling the need of conserving the spiritual interests of the people as well as the financial aspects of the campaign, the convention asked the Conservation Commission to seek to enlist, through the state and associational organizations, all the 27,000 local Baptist churches in the South in a larger evangelistic effort during the next twelve months, the aim being to induce as many individual members of the churches as possible to win at least one soul to Christ during the new year. Reports to the convention showed that there were 173,935 persons received into the local Baptist churches by baptism during the past year, and a much larger number will be sought during the year ahead.

Would Evangelize Europe.

One of the interesting actions of the convention was the decision to back up fully the Foreign Mission Board in its program for the evangelization of the new European territory of Spain, Jugo-Slavia, Hungary, Roumania, the Ukraine and Southern Russia. Dr. J. H. Rushbrooke, of London, Baptist Commissioner for Europe, addressed the convention, telling how he had distributed the relief funds contributed by Baptists for the needy families of those countries and how the giving of this relief had opened wide the door of missionary opportunity.

Work on the older foreign fields during the past year was unusually successful, the board reporting receipts of $2,404,988 for its missionary operations and $278,000 for relief work, as well as $100,000 worth of clothing; 6,993 baptisms on the foreign fields; 187 of the 611 churches self-supporting, with a total of 405 foreign missionaries and 978 native workers employed.

Home Mission Board Active.

The Home Mission Board reported 77,072 additions to the churches through its instrumentalities, church extension operations of $1,248,000, and 298 patients treated at the Tubercular Sanatorium at El Paso.

During the year the receipts of the Sunday School Board reached $1,147,721.73, and the board turned back into general work of the denomination the sum of $189,000.

Although only three years of age, the Relief and Annuity Board, which seeks to supply the needs of aged, dependent ministers and their families, has doubled the number of beneficiaries receiving aid from the denomination as well as the amount of relief given. It now has permanent resources in excess of $900,000.

There are 119 Baptist educational institutions in the South, with a total enrollment of 40,000 pupils, the report of the Education Board showed, and 2,185 of these pupils are preparing for special Christian service, such as the ministry, missionary and other special religious work.

The Woman's Missionary Union, representing the organized women of the South, reports a total of 19,485 organized societies of women and young people, while the cash contributions by the women to the various causes fostered by the denomination during the year amounted to $3,115,437.

Indigestion

Many persons, otherwise vigorous and healthy, are bothered occasionally with indigestion. The effects of a disordered stomach on the system are dangerous, and prompt treatment of indigestion is important. "The only medicine I have needed has been something to aid digestion and clean the liver," writes Mr. Fred Ashby, a McKinney, Texas, farmer. "My medicine is for indigestion and stomach trouble of any kind. I have never found anything that touches the spot, like Black-Draught. I take it in broken doses after meals. For a long time I tried pills, which gripped and didn't give the good results. Black-Draught liver medicine is easy to take, easy to keep, inexpensive."
